

Primary 1 to 3 Students' Sex Education Program

This program use interactive games, puppet shows, animated films and other interesting multi-media aids to teach students how to protect themselves.

Content

- 1 · Know your body parts and private parts
- 2 · Respect the bodies of others
- 3 · Indentify good touch, bad touch and confusing touch
- 4 · Know what sexual abuse is
- 5 · Know how to do when being sexually abuse

(Program about 1 hour)

Fee

$20 for each student

Mobile Classroom

The ECSAF Mobile Classroom is built into a 33 feet long and 12 feet high truck with a capacity of 40 children per session. It is air-conditioned and contains audio-visual equipment (television set, video, recorders, screens and projector), models, puppets other aids and modular study packs. Since October 2001, this program has started and student has been taught how to protect themselves from being sexual abuse.